Former Well Known El Paso Woman Passes Away Rather Suddenly.

Mrs. R. C. Canby, formerly of El Pase Mrs. R. C. Canby, formerly of Id Passo, died Sunday morning in New York. News of the death was wired by Mr. Canby to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart Sunday. The message gave no details. Death was evidently sudden, as Mrs. Stewart had a letter from Mrs. Canby a week ago, dated at Wallingford, Conn., and nothing was said of any illness; in fact Mrs. Canby spoke of hoping to me some of her triends in New York

The Canbys, since leaving El Paso two years ago, have been making their home in Wallingford, the girlhoed home of Mrs. Canby. Mr. Canby, though maintaining an office in New York, has spent his time partly in Miami, Ariz., in his work as consulting metallurgist. Mrs. Canby spent a part of the time in New York with Mr. Canby and, as Sanday's message was dated New York, the presentation is that she died there.

3tr. and Mrs. Canby resided in El Paso, for many years, leaving here two years ago to reside in the cast. They returned here about a year ago to visit friends, and immerous social affairs were given for Mrs. Canby at thest time. While they lived in El Paso, Mr. Canby metallurgist and made reports on some of the biggest mining properties in this part of the country.

While residents of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. Canby resided at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart. They were members of St. Clement's Episcopal church, and Mrs. Cauby was active in social affairs in the city. They have no children.
